MISS PITT HURT IN A RUNAWAY

Wheel of a Coal Wagon Breaks Collar Bone and Jaw.

JUMPED IN FRONT OF TEAM

TRIED TO ESCAPE HORSES WHICH ROUTED FUNERAL.

Nellie Pitt, 13 years old, who lives at 290 West Four South street, sustained injuries in a runaway accident yester day which may prove fatal. Her collar bone was fractured and dislocated and her jaw broken in two places. The doctors fear that the girl may be in-home as pickly as possible, where her condition was reported last night as Very encouraging.

Those who witnessed the accident say Those who witnessed the accident say it was an act of criminal carelessness on someone's part to leave a team of spirited horses standing alone on a public street.

"THE DOMAIN OF ART."

H. L. A. Culmer Lectures Upon Pictures at Commercial Club.

L. A. Culmer gave a discourse at the Commercial club last evening on "The Domain of Art." It was illustrated with several hundred stereopticon views. They gave black and white reproductions of the famous paintings of the masters of the brush and palette. It was an educational treat for lovers of art and sculpture. Not only was the audience of more than 300 people given the opportunity of seeing a facsimile of the master pieces of artists, but were entertained by a short discourse by Mr. Culmer on the aims and objects of the picture and the character and moods of the artist. . As each picture was reproduced upon the white canvas, Mr. Culmer minutely described the features of the work of art, bringing out the strong points of each, and explaining in an entertaining mual exhibit of the Utah Art Institute. The painting is "The Grand Canyon of the Colorado," which hangs in the room just off Secretary Harris' office. Those who have seen the canyon and looked upon the work of Mr. Culmer, pro-nounce it a valuable and accurate re-production of that wonderful, soul-inspiring freak of nature,

HAD SIMILAR EXPERIENCE.

Burt Manheart Was Shot in Eureka About a Year Ago.

Burt Manheart, who was stabbed in the side a few nights ago while passing a billboard on State street, had a somewhat similar experience about a year ago while working in Eureka. He was stopping at his brother-in-law's home at the time and working for him in the latter's saloon. One evening everybody had left the house but Manheart, when procured his revolver. Thus armed he went to the corner of the house to ewait the coming of the burglar, if such it should prove to be.

Just as he reached the corner the heart fired, but did not hit the assail-ant. After ripping a great gash in Manheart's arm the burglar fied, acording to Manheart's story, and took

As in the recent stabbing affair the police were unable to get any clue to the thief or to the disposal of the stolen property. The police of this city when interviewed concerning the subject adable to fathom.

J. ROSS CLARK IN TOWN.

Tells of Construction Work on the San Pedro.

Vice President J. Ross Clark of the San Pedro road reached Salt Lake yesterday, after taking the trip with the other prominent railroad officials over the Ogden-Lucin cut-off. He spent the the road. Tonight he will leave on a special train for Calientes, accompanied by General Manager R. E. Wells and Assistant Chief Engineer H. M. McCartney.

About 1,500 men and the same num-ber of animals are at work on con-struction now," said Mr. Clark at the Knutsford last evening. "At the other end the track has been laid fifteen miles from Daggett, and grading is in progress for seventy-five miles, and is ed to the pumping house for
